April 14th, 1757. [Numb. 1190.]

The SOUTH-CAROLINA Gazette.

In the Commons House of Assembly, the 2d Day of April, 1757.

ORDERED, That ALL the Members of this House do attend the Service of the House, on Tuesday the 26th Instant, at Ten of the Clock in the Morning; and that this Order be published in the Gazette.

CHILDERMAS CROFT, C.D.C

CHARLES-TOWN, April 14.

ON Saturday the 2d Inst. the General Assembly of this Province adjourned to Tuesday the 26th; when they will sit to finish the Business of the Session.

Just before the Adjournment, His Excellency the Governor went to Ashley Ferry, to review the Regiment of Horse commanded by the Hon. Col. Bull, which behaved extremely well; and since, His Excellency is gone to Winyah, to review the Craven County Regiment there as this Day.

On the 4th Instant sailed for New-York, His Majesty's Ship Kensington commanded by Capt. Digges.

The same Day sailed for Halifax, His Majesty's Ship Nightingale, commanded by Capt. Campbell.

From Cape Fear, we have an Account of two small Dutch Vessels from Cape-Francois (a Sloop and Scooner) being sent in there, taken by Capts. Fenton and Jones in two New York Privateers.

Our last Advices from New York are, that a considerable Number of Transports have been lately taken up there and at Philadelphia; and that some grand Expedition is on Foot: And 'tis reported, that an Embargo is laid on all the Shipping in New England, New York, the Jerseys, and Pensylvania.

On Sunday last arrived Capt. Beazley, from Providence; who, on the Thursday before was chased, in the Latitude of St. Augustine, for 4 Hours, by a large Ocean Sloop, with a very white Bottom and a vast Crowd of Sail, which by all her Motions, he concluded to be a French Privateer: Capt. Beazley's Sloop being an excellent Sailor, the supposed Privateer lay too, when she found she could not come up with him.

By this Vessel we have Advice, that Capts. Fleming and Beake, in two Privateers belonging to Providence, have lately sent in there a small French Scooner and a Long-Boat, laden with Sugar, &c. and a large Scooner and Sloop, which its pretended belong to the Governor of St. Eustatia. That Capt. Arbuthnot's Prize had proved to be a French Vessel, and her Cargo consisted of all the rich Commodities of Martinico: That the Dutch Snow taken by Capt. Sweeting of Rhode Island, still lay there uncondemned; but the Frenchmen who were found on board are sent in a Flag of Truce to the Cape: That a Flag of Truce was arrived from the Cape, with 13 Englishmen, who who were taken going to plunder a Plantation: That a French Ship called La Genereuse, laden with Sugars, Indico and Coffee, bound for France from the Cape, was lately brought in there, by some *English*men who had been Prisoners on board her, but getting all the Frenchmen drunk, confined them, and took Possession of the Vessel: And that the Capts. Fleming and Beake were returned from their Cruize, and had brought an Account of the Arrival of 7 French Ships of the Line and 2 Frigates au Cap, upon which all the Men of War from Jamaica were returned for their Station, and all our Privateers retired from about the Coast of Hispaniola.

Advice is come, that our good Friends the Dutch, have compleatly armed and manned several stout Vessels at Curacoa, in order to supply the French Colonies with Provisions, &c. at all Events.

The Lyttelton Privateer of this Port, commanded by Capt. Tho. Tucker, is just return'd from a Cruize, of which we have the following Account: That on the 17th of February he spoke with the Defiance and Prince of Orange Privateers, who had made Prizes of 7 Vessels that came out from the Cape together, 3 of which, a Ship, a Snow, and a Sloop, they had them in Company with them: On the 22d chased some small Craft into Port Paix, and there took up a Boat with one Capt. Kelly of Philadelphia, and 6 other Englishmen, who had made their Escape out of Gaol; the Men inform'd Capt Tucker, that they had belonged to the Two Sisters Privateer of Jamaica, mounting 8 Carriage and 12 Swivel Guns, and commanded by Thomas Coverley, who suffered himself to be taken and carried in there by a small French Privateer of 4 Guns: On the 20th, took a small Sloop from Petit Guavas, which he burnt, and two others from Grande Anse, laden with Mahogany, one of which he gave to his Prisoners, and the other to Kelly and Coverley's People to carry them to Jamaica: On the 27th, took and burnt a small Scooner. March 4 h. took a Boat from Port Paix, loaded with Indico, which he sunk, after taking out her Cargo. On the 7th, chased a Scout Boat under the Cannon of Fort Dauphin, which fired several Shot, but did him no Harm. On the 12th, took a Long Boat belonging to a Ship in Port Paix, with 12 Men going to cut Wood, and another Boat loaded with Indico; one of which he gave to his Prisoners, the other he sunk. After this made several Attempts to plunder some Plantations, in Concert with 2 other Privateers, but succeeded only in one, where they burnt all the Buildings with a great Quantity of Indico, &c. amidst a very hot Fire from the Enemy's small Arms and 4 Swivel Guns they had planted on Stumps and made a good Retreat, Capt. Tucker having only 1 Man wounded. The 27th spoke with a Jamaica Privateer, commanded by Capt Howard who told him, he had seen 7 French Men of War, 5 Days before, lying off Monte Christo, and one of them at the same Time giving Chace to a Sail in the Offing. On the 4th Instant, off Cape Nichola, chased and came up with a small Scooner, called the Two Sisters, Richard Beale Master (sent Express from Jamaica with a Packet for the Admiral), who inform'd him, that the Earl of Loudoun, a fine Privateer Snow belonging to New-York, mounting 14 Carriage Guns, commanded by Capt. Mark Ballentine, had been taken off Monte Christo, by a French Frigate, after an Engagement of 5 Hours; but was afterwards retaken by 2 New York Sloops, and carried into Jamaica, where Capt. Ballentine gave the disagreeable News, that he had met with 5 French Ships of the Line, one of 80 Guns with 1400 Men, and 3 Frigates, and saw two of the latter attack His Majesty's Ship the Greenwich, of 50 Guns, commanded by Capt. Rodham, who beat them both off, after a hot Contest of 5 Hours; soon after which he saw a 74, a 64, and 50 Gun Ship come up with the Greenwich, and the two largest take her, after another smart Engagement which lasted an Hour and an half.

Capt. Tucker look'd into most of the French Harbours on Hispaniola, and saw many Vessels lying in them, but too well guarded to cut any of them out, which he designed; and observed, that all along the Coast they had erected 3, 6, and 8 Gun Batteries, with Alarm Lights, and Watchmen blowing Conchs. His Prisoners inform'd him, that the Governor at the Cape had lately forbid any Vessels putting to Sea, from any Part of the Island 'till the Ships of War arrived, which was the Reason he met with nothing of Value; that a Privateer was fitting out at Port Paix, on Purpose to take him; and 7 more, with many others at different Places, to cruize upon this Coast and off Philadelphia and New York, as soon as their Men of War had clear'd their own Coast.
